Learning objectives

1. Why resource management matters

- It's all about the people
- The “new normal” of work

2. Resource management with 10,000ft

- Match people to projects
- Get visibility into performance
- Forecast what's coming

3. 10,000ft panel for Smartsheet

- Capture resource demand for new projects
- Keep project and staffing plans aligned

Your people are your company's unfair advantage.

The future of work

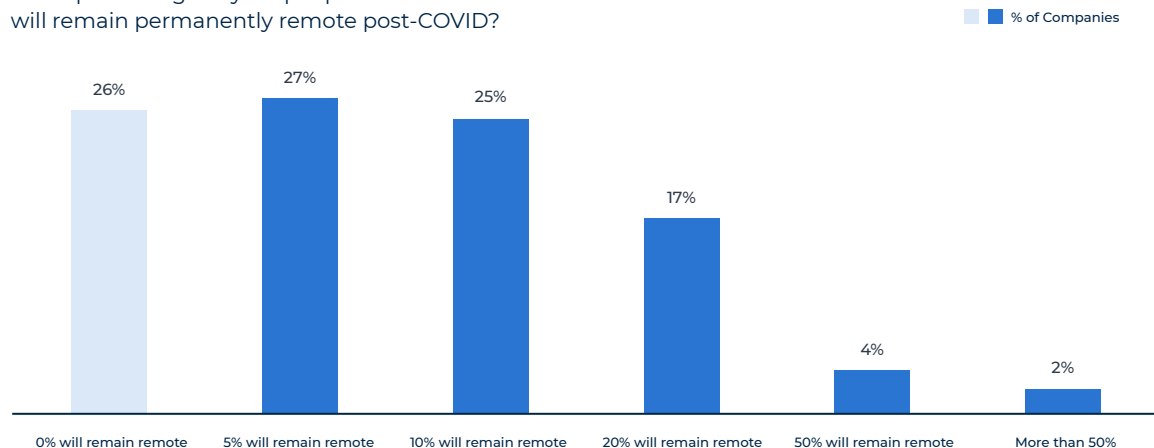

An abstract digital artwork featuring glowing neon lines in shades of blue and purple. These lines form various geometric shapes, including triangles, rectangles, and irregular polygons, which are scattered across a dark, textured background. The lines appear to be floating or attached to a dark surface, creating a sense of depth and perspective. The overall aesthetic is futuristic and high-tech.

The future of work is here.

74% of CFOs intend to permanently shift some employees to remote work

What percentage of your people who weren't remote before COVID-19 will remain permanently remote post-COVID?

Resource management gives you insight into your workforce.
