61MKTG - Beyond Brilliance: Unleash Your Dynamic Marketing Team With Smartsheet

Top 20 Questions & Answers

1. Q: Can you proof documents without the Brandfolder add-on?
    A: You do not need to have a Brandfolder license to access the Smartsheet proofing capabilities. This includes, image, document, and video proofing which are available directly in Smartsheet.

2. Q: I have Smartsheet linked to Adobe, do I need to add Brandfolder?
    A: Both Brandfolder and Smartsheet have Adobe plugins. Each has specific workflows to support the different use cases. They can be used in conjunction with each other or independently.

3. Q: When is the expected integration with Smartsheet and Brandfolder supposed to be available?
    A: Our first version of integration between Smartsheet and Brandfolder is already available. Please reach out to your sales rep, and we will setup that integration on your behalf.

4. Q: Is DocuSign available WITHOUT Brandfolder?
    A: Document proofing, the ability to view and annotate documents and presentation docs, is available to all proofing users without Brandfolder. DocuSign, the e-signature service, is not currently available from within Smartsheet proofing.

5. Q: Do you have a suggestion on the learning site on Smartsheet or seminars for e-signatures and document builder?
    A: You can find upcoming webinars at smartsheet.com/webinars. You can currently register for webinars about new ENGAGE product releases, Document Builder, and Project Management, but new topics are always being added.

6. Q: Good stuff! Is Brandfolder available for existing license holders now? What is the average implementation process and timeline?
   A: Brandfolder is not included for existing license holders. Brandfolder can be purchased independently of Smartsheet. Talk to your account representative to be put in touch with the Brandfolder team.   The implementation process usually ranges from a week to a couple months depending on the complexity and size of your engagement.
